

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The City of Clarksville announces the immediate resignation of City Manager Shannon Barrentine

Clarksville City Manager Shannon Barrentine submitted her resignation to the Mayor and Council on Thursday, August 9, 2018.

“We wish Ms. Barrentine the best in her future endeavors,” said, Charlie Malone, Mayor Pro-Tem. “During this period of transition, the City Council and staff remain committed to serving the residents, businesses and visitors of our historic community.”

Mayor Ann Rushing will serve as the City’s administrative officer until an acting City Manager is appointed or the position is permanently filled. City Hall remains open from 8 AM to 5 PM Monday through Friday, and Citizens may continue to contact City Hall at (903)427-3834 for general, non-emergency assistance or 911 in the case of emergency.

City Secretary Tammy Quick has also resigned effective August 14, 2018. Ms. Quick is departing the City for a position with another organization.

City Council will consider the resignations and interim staffing at a special called meeting for Monday, August 13, 2018 at 6:00 p.m. at City Hall.

END